Nevada Future Business Leaders of America Members Get the Edge at National Leadership Conference

Anaheim, CA—162 of Nevada’s top students traveled to Anaheim, California for the FBLA National Leadership Conference and joined over 7,800 other future business leaders from around the world to Get the Edge in leadership development, networking, and international competition.

Only the top 3% of high school students have the opportunity to attend the National Leadership Conference and compete in the international business leadership competitive events. The following Nevada members took top honors by placing in the top 10 internationally in their events:

7th Place in Cyber Security: John Jones of Global Community High School

8th Place in Electronic Career Portfolio: Javier Sevilla of West Wendover High School

9th Place in Business Communication: Amanda Hartman of Galena High School

10th Place in Database Design & Applications: Tracy Berduo-Bartolon of Southeast Career Technical Academy

10th Place in Management Decision Making: Grace Geldmacher & Ben Tice of Arbor View High School

The winners of these highly competitive and prestigious awards were selected from among FBLA’s membership of over 250,000 students and advisers and represent some of the best and brightest of today’s youth.
