NEVADA ASSOCIATION OF CAREER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION HONORS TOP FBLA EDUCATOR AND STUDENT OF YEAR

State Superintendent of Public Instruction presents award to FBLA honorees

South Lake Tahoe, NV—The Nevada Association for Career and Technical Education (NACTE) recognized a top educator and student of Nevada Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) at their annual state conference at Horizon Resort in beautiful Lake Tahoe on July 18, 2007. Mr. John Anderson of Reed High School was recognized as the Outstanding Local Adviser and Chris Williams of Galena High School as the stop FBLA student for 2006-07.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Keith Rheault, presented the awards to FBLA's deserving honorees. John Anderson was recognized for his years of contribution and service as local chapter adviser at Reed High School FBLA. John's chapter is continually one of the top in the state and three of his students placed in the top ten of their competition at the FBLA National Leadership Conference held earlier in the summer. John was also recognized on-stage at the FBLA national conference in front of 7,000 conference delegates for his service.

Chris Williams is a senior and four year member of Galena High School's FBLA chapter. Chris followed in his family's footsteps and became the third state officer for Nevada FBLA in his family. Chris has gone on to serve the state association for three years, including one year as State President. He currently serves as State Executive Vice President and was recently elected to the position of FBLA National Western Region Vice President. During Chris's term as President Nevada FBLA raised over $16,000 for the March of Dimes.

FBLA is nonprofit 501(c)3 and the premier organization for student leaders preparing for careers in business, management, entrepreneurship, and technology. For more than 60 years FBLA has been the place where 10 million students have found the keys to unlocking the doors to career success, personal achievement, and business leadership. Along with the Middle Level and Collegiate Division, FBLA is the place where business and education comes to life for students! Through FBLA's motto of SERVICE, EDUCATION, and PROGRESS more than 250,000 students participate in innovative leadership and career development programs that bring together members on the local, regional, state, national, and international levels.
