NEVADA FBLA WINNERS FROM NATIONAL COMPETITION

Nevada members compete at largest national conference ever

Chicago, IL—Students from Nevada Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) were recognized at the National Leadership Conference held in Chicago, Illinois for excelling in competitive events and member involvement. At the largest national conference every with over 7,000 delegates in attendance five students from Nevada FBLA placed in the top 10 of their competitive events!

The National Leadership Conference is held annually and is an opportunity for high school and college students with interests in business, entrepreneurship and technology to compete in a wide variety of competitive events. In order to have the privilege of competing at the national level students must first qualify at the State Business Leadership Conference. Winning at nationals takes the support and encouragement from local chapters, administration, state membership and family.

A team from Reed High School and two students from Palo Verde all placed in the top ten of their respective competitive events. The following Nevada students received recognition at the 2007 National Leadership Conference:

Chris Williams of Galena High School elected Western Region National Vice President

Edwin Sweeney, Steven Sweeney, & Angelina Cardona of Reed High School (8th Place Business Ethics)

Michael Jones of Palo Verde High School (8th Place Job Interview)

Andrew Hosea of Palo Verde High School (8th Place Impromptu Speaking)

Chris Williams of Galena High School (Who's Who in FBLA)

John Anderson of Reed High School (Outstanding Local Adviser in Nevada FBLA)

Jennifer Giraud of Spring Creek High School (Finalist Future Business Leader)

Payden Hilyard & Dakota Zablow of Spring Creek High School (Finalist E-Business)

Basic High School (March of Dimes largest fundraising chapter in Nevada)

FBLA is nonprofit 501(c)3 and the premier organization for student leaders preparing for careers in business, management, entrepreneurship, and technology. For more than 60 years FBLA has been the place where 10 million students have found the keys to unlocking the doors to career success, personal achievement, and business leadership. Along with the Middle Level and Collegiate Division, FBLA is the place where business and education comes to life for students! Through FBLA's motto of SERVICE, EDUCATION, and PROGRESS more than 250,000 students participate in innovative leadership and career development programs that bring together members on the local, regional, state, national, and international levels.
