

Chassey Ako Community Service Award

One of the key elements of the FBLA program is the belief that leaders, especially business leaders, have an obligation to make their communities better. Service is one of the three key words in the FBLA moto – Service, Education, Progress.

This award, named for former Nevada FBLA state officer Chassey Ako, honors members who go above and beyond in capturing and personifying this key leadership trait. Local chapters can nominate the member of their chapter who best demonstrates leadership through service.
